

It's Reunion Time! - TJ Class of '73 - 45th Reunion

- Have you ever wondered what happened to that hottie who sat in front of you in history class?
- Are you curious to see how the handsome jock has done in real life and if he is now out of shape or bald?

Get answers to these questions and more at the 45th TJ Class of '73 Reunion!

Here is where we attempt to address all the excuses you may have not to attend this reunion:

-  "I don't want to come alone." Please invite your spouse or a guest to attend with you!
-  "I don't have anything to wear." Dress code is casual attire – just not too casual... ☺
-  "I'm too... (fill in the blank) fat; bald; wrinkled; gray to attend." Please remember we all look like a before picture from a plastic surgery advertisement. You look marvelous!
-  So you think you are a different person than you were in high school? Guess what? We all are.....we're all much better!
-  So you think you are not successful enough? Success is not defined by cash in the bank, a big house, or a fancy car. Success comes in many sizes, shapes, and forms. Your version of success is just right!
-  Cliques? The only cliques you will notice at the reunion will be the sound of your own joints as you dance the night away!

We really want to see you! We've had a blast at past reunions and hope you can join us this year!

Please consider sponsoring our next reunion...

Whether or not you attend this reunion event, we would like to ask those of you who are financially able, to help keep our reunions funded so we can continue having them going forward.

We need your assistance to help cover the many expenses involved with planning and preparing these reunions. These are the expenses that go beyond the actual cost of the events. The largest expense is postage, but expenses also include: security deposits for the events, printed mailers, signage, name tags, prizes, decorations, etc.

Our reunion committee volunteers offer many hours of their time to plan these reunions, as well as covering some monetary expenses. Would you please consider offering a small donation to help defray some of these costs? Please return your donation with the registration form below.
